

BMW 330CD Sport

6 speed manual, 3 litre straight six turbo diesel

Titanium Silver with full black, leather upholstery, black aluminium cube interior trim and anthracite headlining

Mileage 91,650

MOT until end October 2011

Tax until end July 2010

Full Service History with most receipts

M-Sports package:

Electric M-Sport seats with 3 position driver memory

Multi-function M-Sport leather steering wheel

M-Sport leather gear knob

M-Sport door sill kick plates

M-Sport aerodynamic body styling pack

M-Sport tuned suspension

18" MV2 alloys,

Rain sensing wipers and heated washers

Electrically heated and operated door mirrors with auto dipping on nearside mirror

Auto activating and self-levelling lights with headlamp washers

Auto dimming rear view mirror

Digital climate control

Business radio with single cd player

Rear park distance control

On-board computer

Cruise control

Tyre puncture warning system

Factory fitted alarm with immobiliser

2x intelligent keys

Front centre armrest

Split fold rear seat/through loading facility

Tinted, heat reflecting glass

Isofix child seat fixings on front and rear seats

Warning triangle and toolkit mounted in bootlid

Space-saver spare wheel

Brand new brake discs and pads all round

Brand new windscreen (due to recent stone chip)

CO<sub>2</sub> 177g/km

Insurance Group 16

Tax Band I (£220pa)

0-60mph 6.9 seconds

Tops speed 155mph (limited)

Manufacturers fuel consumption:

Urban 31mpg, Extra Urban 54.3mpg, Combined 42.8mpg

I typically get an average of between 35-38mpg whilst driving around the hills and dales of the Peak District, averaging around 46mpg on motorway runs. Pretty impressive returns for the level of performance.